

Objective

Obtain gainful employment applying communications skills to effect progressive reform

Education

- Georgia Institute of Technology:
 - Major: Science, Technology, and Culture
 - STAC coursework: communication, cultural studies, and medium specificity
 - Other coursework: Chemical Engineering (1998-2001)
 - Coursework complete: 1 August, 2008
 - Faculty Honors (4.0 cum. GPA): Fall 2007, Spring 2008
 - Major GPA: 3.92/4.0
- Phillips Exeter Academy:
 - Graduated, 1998

Work History

- United Parcel Service, Doraville, GA
 - Package Handler: (August 2006 – present)
 - Sort and load parcels for interstate travel
- Factory Automation Systems, Atlanta, GA
 - Purchasing/Shipping Agent: (January 2005 – December 2006)
 - Managed all incoming and outgoing parcels
 - Maintained all material warehousing
 - Coordinated with suppliers and between various fabrication projects
- Xanterra Parks and Resorts, Yellowstone National Park, WY
 - Geyser Grill Assistant Manager: (April 2004 – October 2004)
 - Supervised daily food production
 - Maintained excellent guest service
 - Terrace Grill Shift Lead: (April 2003 – October 2003)
 - Supervised prompt and accurate food preparation
- Factory Automation Systems, Atlanta, GA
 - Shop/Field Technician: (June 2001 – August 2002)
 - Assembled controls hardware to meet electrical drawings
 - Assisted on-site installation and troubleshooting
 - Coordinated with affiliated subcontractors

Skills

- Familiar with the Microsoft Office Suite
- Familiar with Java and Python syntax
- HTML, CSS, and Flash experience

Activities

- Contributing writer, The Technique (summer 2007)
- Active brother, Phi Kappa Tau fraternity (1998-2001)

Interests

- Current events and political news
- Creative writing (fiction, essays, blog)
- Popular culture as sociology
- Russian and American literature